DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the response filed on 20 December 2007, which has been entered in the file.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 15 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. A claim 15 depended on cancelled claim 13, the Examiner will consider the claim 15 is depended on a claim 11 until corrected.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2887

4. Claims 7-9, 11, 12, and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Shibata et al. (US 6,343,744, cited by the applicant)(hereinafter referred to as 'Shibata').

Re claims 7-9, 16: Shibata teaches a noncontact IC card comprising an induction coil (4 and 4a) serving as a first coil wherein the conductive wire can be used when frequency LF and HF is used (col. 4, lines 56-67), a capacitor (2a) forming a resonance circuit with the antenna, a digital circuit (2i) serving as a control circuit for controlling signal transmitted/received from a read/write device, wherein the induction coil comprising a cut-off (3) (see figs. 1-11; col. 3, line 30-col. 6, line 12),

Re claims 11, 12, 14, 15: The multiple turn of coil is arranged around the control circuit as shown in figure 11 with the cut-off is included a turn of the conductor.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 10 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shibata in view of Yoshigi et al. (US 6,173,900)(hereinafter referred to as 'Yoshigi').

The teachings of Shibata have been discussed above.

Although, Shibata teaches the noncontact IC card having the coil with the cut-off, he fails to particularly teach that a auxiliary card having a second coil.

However, Yoshigi teaches IC card system comprising a plurality of cards (4 and 9) for transmitting/receiving information to/from a reader/writer (5).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate the teachings of Yoshigi to the teachings of Shibata to transmit/receive information to/from the plurality of the noncontact IC card for user convenience, a user can access the plurality cards at same time. In fact such modification is well known in the art to access the multiple cards same time.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
